NO BLACKLEG AMONG HELPFERS

Several of the helpers which had been furnished the members of the First-Standard Bank's Helper Club and which had died were examined by Dr. Boone Phillips yesterday. After a thorough examination he stated that the animals had died of pneumonia and not of blackleg, as was first thought. About five of the helpers have died and several others are ill. It is thought that the helpers contracted cold on their way here from Chicago, and that this later developed into pneumonia.

CITY COUNCIL

Holds Adjourned Meeting Last Night—
Sidewalk Ordinance Defeated—
Street Improvement Bonds to Be Offered For Sale on November 15.

An adjourned meeting of the City Council was held last night, Mayor J. Wesley Lee presiding and all members being present except Messrs. Smith and Thomas.

The Proposition and Grievance Committee and the City Attorney were ordered to straighten out some of the property owners on Forest avenue and Lexington street who were having some difficulty in reaching an agreement as to what each was to pay for constructing a new sewer.

The following building permits were granted:
A. Sunier and wife—To remodel a frame coal house 5x14 feet, composition roof, and to remove same from west side of lot to East side of lot on East Third street, Sixth Ward.

W. G. Willison—To remove a summer kitchen from house to back of lot, a distance of about 100 feet, and to put on it a wood and tin roof, on East Third street, Sixth Ward.

The Ways and Means Committee and the City Attorney were instructed to look into the matter of collecting some of the brick street assessments which had never been paid.

Mayor Lee stated that over $10,000 had been paid on the new asphalt streets and that the Carey-Reed Company, which constructed them, was anxious to have this amount paid for the street improvement bonds were issued and sold. It was ordered that $10,000 be paid to Carey-Reed Company's bankers in this city.

On motion it was ordered that the street improvement bonds to pay for the new asphalt streets were to be sold on November 15.

The matter of putting down sidewalks in various parts of the city, including the North side Third street from Bridge street to Hunter's alley, was brought up for final action. Attorney A. D. Cole addressed the Council and asked it to reconsider its expressed intention of putting down the sidewalk on East Third street. A protest from a number of Maysville business men against putting down the sidewalk was read, and after a lengthy discussion the matter was voted on and the matter of constructing the sidewalks was voted down. Dr. McCormack, Secretary of the State Board of Health, addressed the Council for a few minutes.

No further business, Council adjourned.

MRS. SARAH ROSER

Aged Maysville Resident Passes Away
At Home on East Front Street
Last Night After Short Illness.

Mrs. Sarah Roser, one of Maysville's pioneer residents, passed away at her home on East Front street last night at 7 o'clock after a three days' illness. Mrs. Roser was born in Maysville and has lived here all her life. She was beloved by all who knew her and her many friends here are grieved to hear of her death.

She is survived by eight children, Mrs. Little Where, S. A. Roser and S. D. Roser of Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. Annie Peckham of Pasadena, Cal., Mrs. Anna Bell Conway of El Paso, Texas, Dr. Forman Roser of Peoria, Ill., Mr. Elwood Roser of Ashland, Ky., and Mrs. Sallie A. Martin of Long Beach, Cal., who has been with her the past eighteen months. Mr. S. D. Roser has been visiting his mother for the past three weeks.

The funeral arrangements have not as yet been completed. The interment will be in Charter Oak Cemetery at Aberdeen and will be private. Friends are kindly asked to omit flowers.

MARRIED AT QUANTICO

Miss Abbie Downey Surprises Friends
By Being Married to Mr. Ben
Middleman Yesterday.

A telegram was received here this morning stating that Miss Abbie Downey was married to Private Ben Middleman at Quantico, Va., yesterday.

Miss Downey left Maysville Wednesday for a visit to Mr. Middleman, who is to leave soon for France. Before leaving she did not tell any of her friends or relatives that she was to be married and it is not known whether it was her intention to be married when she left here or whether it was decided on after she reached Quantico.

Mrs. Middleman is a popular young lady of this city and has for some time been a clerk at Mr. Frank Barkley's Shoe Store. Mr. Middleman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Middleman of Limestone street. The Ledger joins in extending congratulations.

Letter To Mr. H. C. Curran.

Mr. Harry C. Curran is in receipt of the following letter from Mr. Lucien Luttrell, who is now with the American expeditionary forces in France:
On Active Service with the American Expeditionary Force.
September 16, 1917.

Dear Mr. Curran:
How are you by now any way. Sure do hope you are well. I am safe and feeling fine, the people here treat us fine. Now isn't that a lot of news to write you, but that is all I am allowed to write. Be sure and let me know how the election came out. I am pulling my left leg for you. As I have told you all the news I am allowed to tell I will have to close, as ever,
Your friend,

WAKE UP! WAKE UP! WAKE UP! WAKE UP!

America Needs Your Help

TO THE MEN AND WOMEN OF MASON COUNTY:

Your country is at war—not a sideshow war or a little Indian campaign, but the greatest war of all times. The fate of the entire human race hangs in the balance. Millions of young men and women of America are joining in devoting their entire service to their country, making huge personal sacrifices for their country's welfare, in many cases risking their lives, and often giving them up, so that the world may be made safe for democracy.

You who stay at home must do your part by lending the Government of the United States a portion of your savings to meet the expenses of the war. This does not involve any risk or loss on your part. You receive for your loan the best security in the world today, United States Government bonds paying yearly interest at 4 per cent. If these bonds are not good nothing in this wide world is good, and you may as well close up shop and quit right now.

This is not a favor we are asking of you, but a duty, and a duty of the most sacred character. If you do not buy liberty bonds now you may be forced to buy German indemnity bonds later on. The choice is obvious to any thinking man or woman. The banks of Mason County desire to arouse the men of our community from their lethargy. The war must be prosecuted to a successful close, and adequate funds must be raised to meet the war expenses of the Government. You, and this means every man or woman with a dollar to spare, should come forward at once without solicitation and lend your extra dollars to the Government.

You are taking no risk, you are granting no favor by so doing, but you are performing a duty that rests on every individual with character enough to warrant the respect of his or her fellow citizens. It is a patriotic duty which every man and woman owes to America, the champion of Liberty against Autocracy. Act today. Buy Liberty Bonds to the extent of your means. Any of the following banks will serve you free of charge.

BULLETS CRASH THROUGH WINDOW

Of C. & O. Train No. 3 Thursday When Bandits Fire on Train in Covington, and Narrowly Miss Woman and Babe.

Covington, Ky., October 13—Bandits last night fired several shots at Passenger Train No. 3 on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway when at Fifteenth street crossing in this city. The engineer says he believes the men were bandits because of their appearance.

A bullet crashed through a coach window and created excitement among passengers. Before the engineer could stop the train the bandits had fled. They fired at the train when standing in a vacant lot adjoining the track at Fifteenth street. The bullet which entered the coach narrowly missed a woman who held a baby in her arms.

The train was due in Cincinnati from Washington, D. C., at 5:15 p. m., but was an hour late.

Covington police searched in the neighborhood for bandits but without results.

Police are unable to find a motive for the shooting because there were no troops on the train.

PRINCELY ARSON

The world is familiar with the fact that Prince Eitel, the Kaiser's second son, pillaged the chateau of Avricourt when the German army retreated last summer from a section of northern France. But the full story is little known. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, famous Brooklyn preacher, after two months spent in personally investigating the devastation wrought by the modern Huns, has revealed some additional details of that shameful episode. They throw a vivid light on the character of the Hohenzollern family.

It appears that this noble estate, rich with historical associations and filled with priceless relics, was one of the buildings specifically covered by a clause in an international agreement signed by all the powers, including Germany, intended to guarantee the safety of historic edifices in war time. It was occupied for many months by Prince Eitel, as his military headquarters. This is what happened when the retreat occurred, as attested by aged servants and little children, whose affidavits were taken immediately afterward, and of whose testimony Dr. Hillis has photographic copies:

The servants heard German officers telling Prince Eitel that he "would disgrace the German name if he destroyed a building that had no relation to war and could be of no practical aid or comfort to the French army, and he would make his own name of shame and contempt." But the prince was unmoved. He brought in big wagons and hauled away every object of any possible value in the chateau.

Then, says Dr. Hillis, summarizing the sworn testimony, "having promised to leave the building uninjured, he stopped his car at the entrance and exit gates of the ground, ran back to the historic building with a can of oil that he had secreted, filled his torch (a stick with a ball of perforated iron at the end, filled with asbestos), ran through the halls and waited until the flames were well in progress, and then ordered his men to light the fuse of a dynamite bomb." Dr. Hillis has the firebrand that Eitel used.

Thus another of France's oldest and finest monuments was laid low by the son of a royal family that boasts itself the greatest on earth—a prince turned burglar and incendiary. Royal arson was added to the purposeless devastation of a fertile land and murder and outrage of its innocent inhabitants. And there are still people who want civilized governments to make peace with the Hohenzollerns!

BILL THOMPSON'S INSPIRATION

Why should anybody wonder that Mayor Thompson of Chicago, hopeless of re-election because of the resentment aroused by his alleged pro-German sentiments and activities, should seek "vindication" by running for the United States Senate?

He has La Follette for an inspiring example. And he has the virtual support of the rest of the United States senate as long as that gentlemanly social club tolerates the conduct of La Follette and other senatorial friends of the Kaiser.

"We greatly deplore the sufferings caused to the neutrals by our enemy's economic war," said Chancellor Michaelis in a recent speech, "and we always are prepared to assume a share in the provisioning of the neutrals."

That's the proper spirit! And maybe the chancellor will permit us to suggest that as a preliminary step in furnishing this relief, the German U-boats stop sinking the neutrals' food ships.

TIME IS THE TEST

The Testimony of Maysville People Stands the Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale. The public soon finds out when misrepresentations are made, and merit alone will stand the test of time.

Maysville people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? Below is testimony such as the sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

Fred Dresel, tailor and Justice of the peace, 1238 E. Second St., Maysville, says: "I was troubled by inflammation of the bladder and annoyance from my kidneys. The kidney secretions burned in passage and often were retarded. I had severe pains across the small of my back which greatly interfered with my work. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Wood & Son's Drug Store, gave me prompt relief."

Mr. Dresel gave the above statement on February 6, 1908, and on November 14, 1916, he added: "I have had the same faith in Doan's Kidney Pills to-day as ever, for I haven't had any trouble with my kidneys since I last recommended them."

Mr. Dresel is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you—don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Dresel has twice publicly recommended—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadorville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before."

I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not had to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape."

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."

Thedford's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects, it has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it.

Prussianism and Germany

Overmuch stress has been laid upon Germany and the Germans in all this discussion of the world war. Too little emphasis has been given Prussian militarism, which, after all is said and done, is responsible alone for the battle flames which are consuming half of Europe and claiming thousands of lives along the Flanders trench lines. For the two are by no means synonymous.

Prussianism, in the essence, means that autocratic element which dominates the destinies of the German empire and insidiously feeds the ambitions of the Kaiser for world dominion. It is the influence which has inspired the warlord to cause his munition plants, his navy yards, his training camps, to put in extra time for the last three or four decades in building up a war machine with which ultimately he hoped to crush Europe and extend his sphere of influence to the western continent. It is the master mind which dominates the Wilhelmstrasse headquarters of the secret service which has so efficiently kept tab in recent years upon the doings throughout half a dozen European empires. Which has directed the work of the German diplomacy in all its devious and crooked ways both in Europe and America. Which has set up its spy system and maintained its slush funds both in Europe and America. Which is accountable for all of the duplicity and devilry that finally terminated in the present conflagration in Europe.

The Germans, as a people, knew nothing of all this; knew little of it, in fact, today. The German public, the rank and file of German citizenry, have not the advantages of the free press that America enjoys. Whenever a newspaper becomes too frank in its discussion of the things that most intimately concern the public, Prussianism finds a way to have it speedily suppressed. The mission of the German press is to inspire its readers with greater loyalty to the Kaiser. And it has done its work. Prussianism has been as treacherous with the German public as it has been with France, with England, with Russia, or with America. It has deceived and misled it. It has hoodwinked and betrayed it. It has made it a cat's paw and in the end it will seek to make it the goat.

But Prussianism will only succeed in destroying itself. There are no greater lovers of liberty than the Germans as we know them in America. When the smoke of battle clears away and peace once more comes in Europe, Democracy will find an enthusiastic and lasting welcome across the Rhine. The meager advice that trickle through the Prussian censorship all indicate this. Left to itself, the German public would vote for peace tomorrow. In the end, it will wipe out Prussianism. Help speed the day by buying a bond.

THEATRICAL CELEBRITIES AND POSSIBLY ROOSEVELT, BRYAN AND BAKER TO APPEAR AT LOUISVILLE

Louisville, Ky., October 11—A regular program of performances by theatrical celebrities, in addition to plays and vaudeville productions of the most important theatrical circuits, are to be provided to soldiers at Camp Zachary Taylor without cost to them.

This program will begin shortly after Thanksgiving, and a Government theater now is in course of construction near division headquarters. A delegation of representatives of several New York theatrical producers will visit the camp within a few days to make arrangements. A military director for the theater will be appointed at that time.

The big shows, which the public ordinarily pays as much as $2 to see, will be regular free features at the theater. All effort will be made to bring Colonel Roosevelt, William Jennings Bryan, Newton D. Baker and others to the camp theater to address the soldiers. The camp theater will have a capacity of about 4,000.

General Hale tonight delivered an address on "Patriotism" to a large audience of drafted men in the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium.

AERIAL RAID

On Hundreds of Cities To Be Made By Army Fliers on October 20 To Distribute Liberty Loan Literature.

Washington, October 13.—A coast to coast aerial raid on hundreds of cities will be made by army fliers in aeroplanes and balloons on October 20, in behalf of the Second Liberty Loan. Details were completed today by the War Department. At an appointed hour forty-five aviators and eight balloons armed with paper bombs will ascend for flights ranging from fifteen to 146 miles between camps where "the eyes of the army" are in training and surrounding cities.

As cities, villages and towns are passed over hundreds of red, white and blue paper bombs containing Liberty loan literature will be dropped. On each municipality also will be dropped one large red bomb to which will be attached a long ribbon containing a special message for the Mayor. This bomb, by special arrangements now being made by the Treasury and War Departments, may be handed to Mayors direct by the flier or given to any policeman who will deliver it to the Mayor's office. The aeroplanes will carry from 150 to 175 pounds of bombs apiece. The balloons will carry as high as 400 pounds of bombs. The most scientific and daring aviators and balloonists from the different camps will be selected for the flights. Applicants for the honor of flying in behalf of the loan already are coming into the War Department. Beside dropping the bombs the fliers doubtless will give brief exhibitions above every city over which they pass. All of the flights probably will start at the same hour, if a starting time is fixed it will be announced later.

The Chairman of the Mason County Food Conservation Committee Thursday received the following letter from State Headquarters at Louisville. In anticipation of state instructions, the local committee has already arranged a mass meeting at the Washington Opera House for Sunday, October 14, 2 p. m. The letter follows:

Alas Alice Lloyd, Chairman, Mason County Food Conservation Committee, Maysville, Ky., October 10, 1917.

My dear Miss Lloyd:

Nearly one hundred counties in Kentucky have been organized for the Food Pledge Card Campaign during the week of October 21-28. The Chairman in practically every county has secured a splendid array of workers, which is the aggregate will constitute an army that will make this one of the most successful campaigns ever conducted in this country. Every County Chairman seems to realize that she is a part of the war working force of the United States, and there is little or no disposition to avoid the issue. It is this spirit that must pervade the entire campaign.

There is no medium better calculated to bring about this result than the marshaling of forces with the resultant inspiration that comes from co-workers being in touch with each other.

It is with this idea that we venture the suggestion that before October 21, you have general meeting of all of the members of the various committees in your county for final instructions, at which time the opportunity might be taken advantage of to have them addressed by some particularly forceful speaker. Such a meeting would give a zest to the campaign in general that would mean a bigger degree of success than might otherwise be obtained.

Yours very truly,

W. E. MORROW,

Food Campaign Director Kentucky.

These mass meetings have been held in many counties. The Frankfort and Lexington papers give glowing accounts of the enthusiasm and success of the meetings in Franklin and Fayette, but her citizens have proven that she is not less patriotic. She will line up at the word of command from those in charge of the destinies of this year.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

"The Troubles of a Merchant and How to Stop Them" To Be Given at the Gem Theater Thursday Night, October 25.

Announcement has been made by Carl Dodds, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce that he has completed arrangements with the National Cash Register Company to bring to Maysville an illustrated lecture on retail merchandising. The lecture, together with a three reel feature film, "Troubles of a Merchant and How to Stop Them" will be given Thursday night, October 25, at 8 o'clock, in the Gem Theater. Mr. Burns, expert lecturer, will accompany the film.

The retail merchandising lecture, which has been prepared by the National Cash Register Company, is declared to be one of the most comprehensive lectures on the reasons for retail business failures ever prepared, and has been shown before commercial bodies, convention and other organizations the country over.

By means of stereopticon slides, the lecture deals with the value of newspaper advertising to the merchant, tells him how to prepare advertisements, and also explains in detail the best methods of window display how to solve delivery problems, perfect a store organization and other interesting ideas.

The feature film, "Troubles of a Merchant and How to Stop Them" which will be shown for the first time in this city, was prepared by the Esplanade Company for the National Cash Register organization at a cost of $30,000. Expert actors were employed for every character, and it is said that every scene contains a lesson for retail merchants and their salespeople.

The film tells the story of Mr. White, a grocer, who was discouraged and disheartened because of his lack of success. The story shows the indifference of his clerk, his bad store systems, his poorly arranged stock, and other causes of his troubles. How he finally rose to success and prosperity through the introductions of modern methods into his store will be shown in the film.

Many ideas of importance to merchants and clerks will be brought out during the lecture. In other communities where it has been shown it has met with great enthusiasm. It is expected that every business man and clerk in the city will avail himself of the opportunity offered by the lecture, and that a large attendance will result. No charge will be made for admission.

A special appeal is made to our merchants to permit their clerks to take advantage of attending as many of the sessions as can be arranged without extreme inconvenience.

A higher educated clerk means a better salesman for you Mr. Merchant and it is needless to tell you that a better salesman means more profits.

INTERESTING ITEMS OF STATE S. S. CONVENTION

Prof. C. S. Dale and his assistants are busy making homes for the speakers who will be here for the big Sunday School Convention to be held next week. Nearly all have been located but a few more homes are needed. If you can entertain one or two of these good people, telephone Prof. Dale, don't wait for him to call upon you. If you can't entertain in your home perhaps you can pay the board of one at some hotel or boarding house.

Elementary workers will be interested in the announcement that Miss Lemen, Elementary Superintendent for the State of Indiana, will be present for the Elementary Conference. They will also have the privilege of hearing another primary specialist, Mrs. Robertson, wife of Prof. Robertson of the Baptist Seminary, Louisville. Mrs. Robertson is the daughter of Dr. Broadus, famous Baptist divine. These conferences will be held in the Third Street M. E. Church on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

Another speaker of interest who will be here is Miss Annabell Kahn, who has for several years been at the head of the Settlement House in the Louisville Cabbage Patch, made famous by Alice Hogan Rice in her story of Mrs. Wiggs.

Prof. Roper, the noted pianist traveled for several years with Dr. Torrey, the great evangelist, and then with E. O. Excell. He has been the pianist at all the great World and International and many of the State Conventions. Some one has described his playing as "lace-like," while Joe Clark says, "He puts in all the frills and furbelows." You will miss a treat if you don't hear him.

On Thursday evening there will be a complimentary supper given to the county and district officers by the State Association. This will be served by the ladies of the Third Street M. E. Church and although for the officers, all Sunday School workers are welcome. Price of plate, seventy-five cents. There will be an appetizing menu and bright, attractive toasts. This promises to be a delightful social occasion and we urge all Sunday School workers to take advantage of this opportunity to honor our faithful county and district officers who serve year after year without any compensation.

PULLEY WORKS COME TO RESCUE OF PUMPING STATION

The coal supply at the pumping station of the Maysville Water Company ran short yesterday but the Ohio Valley Pulley Works came to the rescue and loaned a car load of their very scarce fuel. There is very little coal in Maysville at the present time but it is hoped that there will be some relief within a few days.
